Topic: Achievement for State

Importance: Himachal HPAS Prelims and Mains

What is the news?

- A first, Himachal begins creating a DNA database.

Why important?

- Himachal Pradesh became the first state in the country to start creating a DNA database.

How will this help?

- It will be of great help in investigating heinous crimes, the identification of disaster victims and unclaimed bodies, missing persons and repeat offenders.

What software used and how it will help?

- The Directorate of Forensics Services, Junga, has procured DNA profile databasing and matching technology (Smallpond TM software from the USA) at a cost of Rs 55 lakh. It has a capacity of about 20,000 DNA profiles that can be expanded further.
- A local DNA profile information database can be created and maintained through this facility, allowing new DNA profiles to be effectively matched to existing profiles in seconds. On average, 600 cases with biological evidence come in for DNA profiling in the state annually.
- With this software, DNA profiles can be stored as a searchable database that will be extremely useful to provide investigation leads and identification of disaster victims.
- “In future, it will also come handy in keeping a check on the movement of suspicious and criminal elements across borders,” said Vivek Sahajpal, Assistant Director (DNA), Directorate of Forensics Services, Junga.

What is the news?

- Two IPS officers, Manav Verma and Rohit Malpani, have been selected to highlight the outstanding work done by them during Covid in Baddi police district in the All-India Police Science Congress (AIPSC), the highest professional body related to police work.

Why important?

- It is for the first time in the history of the AIPSC that the HP officers are being recognized nationally and internationally.

Who organized this?

- The science congress is organized by the Bureau of Police, Research and Development, Ministry of Home Affairs every year.
- This year, the 48th AIPSC is being organized on April 22 and 23 in the Central Academy for Police Training (CAPT), Bhopal. Union Home Minister Amit Shah will inaugurate the APISC while Governor of Madhya Pradesh Mangubhai Patel, will be chief guest.

Topic: Increase in Revenue Collection in State

Importance: Himachal HPAS Mains

What is the news?

- The revenue collection of the State Taxes and Excise Department during 2021-22 has registered an increase of 19.30 per cent at Rs 8,403.70 crore despite the pandemic.

How they achieved this?

- An official spokesperson said the increase in the revenue collection was possible due to constant efforts of the department and timely implementation of the directions of the government.
- The spokesperson said the officers of the department were given laptops and tablets due to which they were able to complete the online works such as the verification of e-way bills, ITC imbalance, refund of GST and other GST-related works and were able to generate an increase in the revenue collection in 2021-22 despite the Covid-19 outbreak.
