Topic: Horticulture census in Himachal Pradesh

Importance: Himachal HPAS Prelims and Mains

What is the news?

- A Horticulture Census in Himachal Pradesh continues at a late pace, apple growers upset.

Challenges shared:

- The horticultural census underway in the state is taking place at a snail's pace. The agency responsible for the task has not "met the deadlines" and the Department of Horticulture could use another organization to complete the exercise. Apple farmers are upset about the delay in the census.
- How is the department going to frame the policies required for such an important area if it does not even have up-to-date data? So, the current census must be completed as early as possible.

Census of Horticulture carried out over how many years?

- The census was being conducted after over 30 years. The exercise was last done in 1989.

Who will conduct?

- Last year, the Horticulture Department signed an MoU with the Common Service Centre (CSC) for the census detailed and updated information on the horticultural land and associated activities in the state.
- The CSC was to conduct the survey in all 12 districts of the state, starting with Shimla. “The agency has so far completed just around 45 per cent of the work in Shimla district.
