Importance: Himachal HPAS Prelims and Mains

Importance for Prelims: Himachal Current Events

Importance for Mains Exam:

- PAPER-VI: GENERAL STUDIES-III: Unit III: Topic: Religious Tourism

What is the news?

- The Bijli Mahadev ropeway in Kullu is unlikely to see the light of the day anytime soon as the government has terminated the agreement with the company and the matter is under arbitration.

What is the reason?

- Usha Breco Company, which was allotted the job in 2018 by the Tourism Department, has failed to start the work even after four years.

- As per the MoU signed between the department and the company, the project is supposed to come up under the PPP mode.
- The ropeway was to be built at a cost of Rs 150 crore. At first the officials kept giving excuses about its formalities and later a dispute cropped up over its location. It was decided that the ropeway would be built 70 metre from the Bijli Mahadev Temple Complex. The officials then kept making excuses over the corona outbreak in 2020.
- Kullu District Tourism Development Officer (DTD0) Sunayna Sharma said that a notice had been given to the company. The Law Department has been approached to take back the project from the company so that it can be awarded to some other firm.
- The government has been planning to build the Bijli Mahadev ropeway for a long time. With the construction of the ropeway, the five-kilometer steep trek will be covered in seven minutes.
- Thousands of pilgrims visit Bijli Mahadev to pay obeisance to the Shivlingam situated on the top of the mountain. The construction of the ropeway will boost tourism and create employment opportunities in the region.

About Bijli Mahadev temple:

- Bijli Mahadev Temple is located approximately 10km from the town of Kullu. It is located at an altitude of 2460 meters and offers panoramic views of the valleys of Kullu and Parvati.
- The Hindu month of Shravan (sacred month for worshiping Lord Shiva and Lord Vishnu) is the best time to visit this temple.
- The temple is situated on the mountain, which is close to the confluence of rivers Parvati and Beas and is dedicated to Lord Shiva (Mahadev).

Architecture of Bijli Mahadev Temple:

- The temple of Bijli Mahadev represents the Pahari style of traditional temple architecture in the Kullu Valley. The entrance door frames have intricate wood carvings and there is also a stone statue of Nandi (Lord Shiva's bull). For darshan (worship), you need to enter the temple sanctum that houses the lingam.
- According to popular beliefs, a 60-foot long shaft on the temple top attracts atmospheric lightning and destroys the lingam at regular intervals. It is believed that divine power saves the world from destruction by absorbing the lightning. This lingam is put together using butter as an adhesive.

2) Numerous wars were fought over the centuries, including in 1337 with Mohammad Bin Tughlak, Timur in 1398, Emperor Akbar in 1556 who levied a tribute upon the Raja of Kutlehar of 1600 rupees along with gifts of jewels, cloth and hill pheasants on the Emperor's birthday. Also, as a guarantee of loyalty a son of the Raja, 'a Prince' of Royal Blood was kept in attendance at the Imperial Court in Delhi and a troop of 500 foot soldiers was stationed with the Mughal Emperor and paid for by the Kutlehar Durbar.

3) In 1700 Guru Gobind Singhji crossed Kutlehar when Anandpur Sahib was attacked by the Mughals. The then Raja defied the Mughal orders and did not attack the Sikh army paying heavily with the wrath of the Mughal Emperor and the Kutlehar territory was cut back and the Raja was left with just a fraction of his old territory. In 1701 the Raja and Rani of Kutlehar met Guru Gibind Singhji at Rewalsar where the Guruji presented the Raja with his sword as a token of gratitude. The Kutlehar Family is still in possession of the sword gifted by Guru Gobind Singhji.

4) In the more recent past, the Kutlehar territory extended to the present areas of District Una, Talhatti in Hoshiarpur, Bassi Bachertoo in Bilaspur and in Hamirpur, till it was annexed by Maharaja Ranjit Singh 1825 and the Raja exiled to the fort in Charatgarh. Punjab was then annexed by the British and the Raja was allowed to move back in the hills.
