Topic: Bar on bail in drug cases not valid if search provisions violated: Punjab and Haryana High Court

Importance: Punjab PCS Prelims and Mains

Punjab PCS Prelims: Punjab Current Events

Punjab PCS Mains:

- Paper 4: General Aptitude I: Topic: Indian Constitution & Polity : Structure, organization and functioning of the Executive and the Judiciary; Ministries and Departments of the Government; pressure groups and formal/informal associations and their role in the Polity.

What is the news?

- In a significant judgment liable to change the way drug cases are adjudicated, the Punjab and Haryana High Court has ruled that the bar on bail in cases involving commercial quantity of narcotics will not apply where search provisions have prima facie been violated.

Why this ruling came?

1) The ruling by Justice Jasgurpreet Singh Puri of the High Court came on second regular bail petition filed by an accused in a case registered on September 11, 2021, under the provisions of the Narcotics Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act at Sadar Dhuri police station in Sangrur district.

2) Taking up the matter, Justice Puri asserted a perusal of consent memo shown to the court, prima facie, made it clear that there was a violation of Section 50 of the Act related to search.

3) The provision is aimed at protecting an accused from false implication. The police are required to properly inform the accused of his right of getting searched in the presence of a magistrate or a gazetted officer.

4) Justice Puri asserted it was settled law that Section 50 was mandatory in nature. The purpose was to provide a safeguard to the accused that has an option to get searched in the presence of either a gazetted officer or a magistrate. But the only thing a police officer asked was whether he was ready to part with Tramadol tablets he was having, instead of giving an offer to him to get searched.

Allowing the bail plea, Justice Puri added:

- “This court is of the view that since there is a prima facie violation of provisions of Section 50, the bar contained under Section 37 of the NDPS Act will not apply in the present case, especially in view of the fact that the petitioner is stated to be not involved in any other case.
- It is also not the case of the state that in case the petitioner is released on bail, he may repeat the offence or may abscond from justice. Therefore, the twin conditions contained under Section 37 of the NDPS Act for making a departure contained therein remain satisfied.”
- Section 37 makes it clear that the severity or strictness in granting bail was applicable to offences involving commercial quantity. It indicates that no person accused of an offence punishable under this law “shall be released on bail or on his own bond unless the public prosecutor has been given an opportunity to oppose the application for such release and where the public prosecutor opposes the application, the court is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for believing that he is not guilty of such offence and that he is not likely to commit any offence while on bail”.

Topic: Steps to Curb Farm fires

Importance: Punjab PCS Prelims and Mains

Punjab PCS Prelims: Environmental studies

Punjab PCS Mains:

- Paper 7: General Aptitude IV: Topic: Environment: Conservation, environmental pollution and degradation, Issues related to environmental, Climate change impact assessment

What is the news?

- Farm fires, which usually start after paddy harvesting in the last week of September, are likely to set in by the middle of this month because the crop was sown a week before the official date.

How much area Paddy Sown?

- This season, paddy was sown over 31.5 lakh hectares, from which more than 20 million tonnes of straw is expected to be generated.

Steps taken by Punjab Government:

- More than 10,000 officers will be in the field to curb stubble burning.
- The Punjab Pollution Control Board (PPCB), along with the Agriculture Department, will start monitoring air quality from September 15, though farm fire incidents rise by September-end or the first week of October.

Experts says:

- The cases may rise this year as farmers are angry over now-repealed agricultural laws and the state government not paying the Supreme-Court-ordered financial incentive.

2013, NGT decision:

- In 2013, the National Green Tribunal had prohibited the burning of paddy straw, saying: "The guilty will be liable to pay an environmental compensation ranging from Rs 2,500 to 15,000 per incident."
- Farmers, however, continue to burn stubble in the absence of any strict action.

Karunesh Garg, PPCB member secretary, said: "The board is sensitising farmers not to burn stubble. More awareness and red entries in land records of erring farmers can reduce the cases this season."

Report on Incidents took place:

- The state reported 52,991 incidents of fire fires in 2019 and this increased to 76,590 next year – a rise of 44.5 per cent. In 2021, the number was 71,304 in spite of spending crores of rupees on awareness drives.

In-situ crop residue management machines:

- Between 2018-19 and 2020-21, the state received 76,626 machines under the Central Sector Scheme on Promotion of Agricultural Mechanisation for in-situ management of crop residue. It seems that machinery and awareness drives have failed to serve the purpose.
- Meanwhile, at least 65,000 farmers have applied for 32,100 subsidised in-situ crop residue management machines that are to be provided by the state government during kharif harvesting.

Objectives of In-situ crop residue management machines:

- Reducing the air pollution and preventing loss of nutrients and soil microorganisms caused by burning of crop residue. Promoting in-situ management of crop residue through the use of appropriate mechanization inputs.

Can manage 50% stubble:

Despite best efforts, Punjab can manage only 50% of stubble, leaving no option for farmers but to burn it. Any action against farmers is challenged by unions. – Senior official

- 20 mn tonnes of straw expected to be generated.
- 10,000 officers in the field to curb stubble burning.
